What are my obligations?

- When signing up for the policy: declare exactly all the circumstances and all elements allowing the risk to be assessed
- During the course of the policy: declare any new circumstances or change in circumstances likely to lead to a significant and lasting aggravation of the insured risk
- Pay the premiums
- In case of an incident:
 - take all reasonable measures to prevent and mitigate the consequences of the incident;
 - declare the claim to the Company as soon as possible, and at the latest within 8 days, except in cases of force majeure
 - indicate the date, nature, causes, circumstances, consequences and location of the incident
 - do not carry out or have any repairs carried out before verification by the Company or with their agreement.

When and how should payments be made?

You are required to pay the premium annually and you receive an invitation to make a payment. A split premium is possible subject to certain conditions.

When does the cover begin and when does it end?

The start date and duration of the insurance is indicated in the special conditions of the policy. The policy lasts one year and is tacitly renewable.

How can I cancel the policy?

If you wish to cancel your policy, you must make this known at least 30 days before the expiry date of the annual premium, or 30 days before the anniversary date of the effective date of the policy. The policy is terminated by registered letter or by bailiff's writ or by remittance to the company of a notice of termination against a receipt.
